Global X MSCI Colombia ETF

Analyst Report

GXG offers exposure to Colombian equities, by holding the largest and most liquid companies that are domiciled in the South American nation. For investors seeking investment in the nation, GXG is one of the only choices available as most ETFs do not offer any allocations to the emerging nation except for broad Latin America funds. GXG is a nice option for investors who want to load up on Colombia but be aware the fund could experience high levels of volatility.
