

AEMB

American Century Emerging Markets Bond ETF

Fund Description

AEMB is an actively managed fund that invests in both investment- and non-investment grade government and corporate bonds from emerging market countries denominated predominately in US dollar but also local currencies.

FactSet Analyst Report

The fund is being delisted, the last day of trading on an exchange is September 26, 2024. AEMB potentially selects debt securities from any country that is not considered a developed market. The portfolio is actively managed, using a top down approach, to select securities based on fundamental research, quantitative model inputs and qualitative considerations such as macroeconomic factors, country exposure and issuer credit analysis. The weight given to each factor will vary over time. The fund may invest in both investment grade and high yield securities with no average maturity or target duration. The fund manager may also use derivatives to enhance returns or hedge risk.