JPMorgan BetaBuilders U.S. Aggregate Bond ETF

Fund Description

BBAG tracks a market-cap weighted index to provide exposure to investment grade, USD-denominated debt securities from government and corporate issuers. The fund may invest in securities of any maturity.

FactSet Analyst Report

BBAG seeks to track the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index, to provide exposure to a broad portfolio of USD-denominated, investment grade debt securities issued by government and corporate entities. The index does not impose a limit regarding the average duration of securities included in the portfolio. The index may invest in a variety of securities such as corporate bonds, USD-denominated foreign debt securities, asset-backed securities, mortgage-backed securities, mortgage dollar rolls, and US government obligations. JAGGs underlying index selects and weights securities by market-cap. Prior to Feb. 1, 2023, this fund was actively managed, and was named JPMorgan U.S. Aggregate Bond ETF, with a ticker of JAGG.
