

GSEE

Goldman Sachs MarketBeta Emerging Markets Equity ETF

Fund Description

GSEE tracks an index of emerging-market equities, selected and weighted by market capitalization.

FactSet Analyst Report

GSEE is passively managed to invest in large- and midcap companies. The fund targets the largest 85% firms by market cap from emerging markets. It offers a plain-vanilla exposure to broad sectors, which allows investors to build a portfolio of passive exposure to international equity markets. The Index is weighted by market cap and reconstituted on a semi-annual basis.
