

GXDW

Global X Dorsey Wright Thematic ETF

Fund Description

GXDW is a passively managed fund-of-funds providing global equity exposure to disruptive-growth trends. Selection is based on a proprietary momentum-based methodology and initially weights the exposure equally.

FactSet Analyst Report

GXDW aims to provide exposure to the top five Global X thematic funds ranked for highest relative strength based on momentum. In measuring relative strength, the process looks at historical price patterns of each fund as compared to the others. Initially each thematic fund is equally weighted in the portfolio, positions are rebalanced monthly. Prior to April 1, 2025 the fund tracked the Solactive Thematic Growth Index, fund name was Global X Thematic Growth ETF, and traded under the ticker GXTG.
