FactSet Analyst Report

The security is being delisted. The last day of trading on an exchange is March 14, 2024. KBUY tracks an index of Chinese companies that are classified (by GICS) as Consumer-Related Industries. Eligible companies can come from a wide range of industries, including electronics, household items and appliances, clothing, luxury items, leisure facilities, and food and beverage. The top 30 qualified companies, ranked by long term operating income, long term operating cash flow, market capitalization, long term return on equity and long term gross profit, are included in the index. Individual stocks are weighted by market cap, up to a cap of 15%. KBUY includes all the major share classes: A, B, H, and N-shares, red chips, P and S-chips, and foreign listings. The fund uses a sampling method and is rebalanced quarterly.
