

LATR

Corgi Buy Now Pay Later ETF

Fund Description

LATR is actively managed and invests in companies involved in buy now, pay later and point-of-sale financing ecosystems, including payment platforms, underwriting tools, checkout software, and related consumer credit infrastructure. The fund seeks capital growth.

FactSet Analyst Report

LATR provides actively managed exposure to companies tied to the growing use of installment-based consumer payments and digital checkout financing. The strategy focuses on businesses positioned across the broader buy now pay later ecosystem, including lending platforms, merchant enablement providers, payment infrastructure, underwriting technology, and e-commerce companies with meaningful installment payment exposure. Security selection combines thematic, quantitative, and bottom-up analysis, with emphasis placed on revenue exposure and strategic positioning within the evolving consumer financing landscape. The portfolio may include both US and international companies and can invest in less liquid opportunities, including special purpose vehicles providing exposure to private firms aligned with the theme.
