

MBSX

Regan Fixed Rate MBS ETF

Fund Description

MBSX is actively managed to focus on investment grade US fixed rate mortgage-backed securities. The fund seeks to provide current income, allocating according to proprietary bottom-up analysis.

FactSet Analyst Report

MBSX actively invests in mortgage-backed securities (MBS), focusing on fixed rate agency residential MBS issued by government-sponsored entities, considered investment grade. Cash awaiting investment may be held in short-term investment vehicles like US government and agency securities, investment grade money market instruments, and equivalents. The fund invests in securities regardless of maturity or duration. The funds advisor seeks advantageous risk-return profiles, using bottom-up analysis of collateral and capital structures to identify value investments and trading opportunities.
