Invesco S&P 500 Equal Weight Energy ETF

Fund Description

RSPG tracks an equal-weighted index of US energy companies in the S&P 500.

FactSet Analyst Report

RSPG is a large-cap sector fund tracking an equal-weighted index that provides exposure to the energy segment of the S&P 500. The fund holds US energy companies, stretching across multiple sub-industries from the broadly defined energy space. During quarterly rebalances, the index imposes a 22 company minimum count while featuring an equal-weight play. In cases where fewer than 22 companies are viewed eligible, the index will turn to selecting the largest energy companies in the S&P MidCap 400 Index based on market-cap until the minimum count is reached. Prior to March 21, 2022, the fund tracked the S&P 500 Equal Weight Energy Index. Prior to June 07, 2023, the fund traded under the ticker, RYE.
