

TGLB

T. Rowe Price Global Equity ETF

Fund Description

TGLB is an actively managed fund that seeks long-term capital appreciation through investments in global equities, including emerging markets. Investments are not restricted in terms of market capitalization.

FactSet Analyst Report

TGLB provides broad exposure to global equities, including derivatives. While the fund typically targets companies in global developed markets, the fund may also hold emerging markets stocks. The fund employs a bottom-up stock selection process focused on identifying individual companies with strong fundamentals while incorporating a top-down view of global economic conditions to inform sector, country, and industry positioning. Although investments typically focus on large-cap companies, the fund can invest across any market-cap capitalization. As an actively managed fund, the portfolio managers can analyze market and financial data to make buy, sell, and hold decisions at their discretion.
